

Australian Wool Education Trust

“Expanding the frontiers for wool production”

Thursday 23rd May, 2013
10.00 am - 2.00 pm

Shear Outback shearing shed, Hay

Program and speakers:

- 9.30 am Registration, Tea and coffee available
9.55 am Welcome
- 10.00 am Potential threats to your lamb marking percentages from heat stress and new viruses.
Greg Curran, Regional Veterinary Officer Broken Hill, NSW
- 10.30 am Pushing the reproductive boundaries of the Merino
Jim Crossley, Tom’s Lake, Booligal, NSW
- 1100am Morning tea
- 11.20am Shearing twice a year: the Steam Plains experience
Magnus Aitken, Manager Steam Plains, Paraway Pastoral Company
- 11.50am Wellness and wool: creating a compelling future for Australia’s wool clip
Paul Swan, Group Manager Market Intelligence and Trade reporting, AWI
- 12.20pm Hay grazier to NFF President!" Duncan Fraser, “Narringa” Hay
- 12.40pm Summing up and question time
1.00 pm Lunch – included
2.00 pm Close

Cost: $25 Includes lunch and an opportunity to interact with final year students from the University of Sydney and Charles Sturt University.

RSVP: Friday May 17 to assist with catering

For more information and to RSVP contact:

Sally Ware: sally.ware@industry.nsw.gov.au Tel: 02 6993 1608, Mob: 0429 307 627

Trish Schipp: pschipp@csu.edu.au Tel:0269334479

Peter Wynn: pwynn@csu.edu.au Tel: 026933 2938, Mob: 0428679954

Australian
Society of Animal
Production

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY